ITEMS FOR NEWSLETTER.

I would like to encourage members to forward to me any item they feel should be included in any future Newsletters. LEVEL 3 SCHOOL 2004.

A Level 3 School was held again this year, with sixteen officials passing. Our congratulations go to these members, who have worked very hard over the years to reach this standard. It is not an easy task to pass this Level, so if you want to reach this standard, work even harder on knowing your rules, and keep up with the guidelines Carol includes in the Newsletter from time to time.

Congratulations to Alan Maxwell, Joh Maxwell, Jodie Lyons, Alison Thiel, Diane Cavedon, Gretta Jamieson, Faye McLachlan, Leigh Harrington, Eleanor Scott, Grant Lynch, Barry Cole, Rachel Morgan, Ewen Morris, Greg Liebelt, Kaye Harrison, Paul Inglis.

UNIFORM ORDER FORMS.

If you wish to order a new uniform, please do so immediately, as Patricia will be ordering in the next few weeks and no other order will be going in until February, March.

The coaches first meeting was held on 6th March with many going onto evaluate at the VBL Tournament for the weekend.

From this meeting 135 Association evaluations were set down. With 5 Scoretable Officials working on each game that is 675 individual evaluations completed.

During the year as Educator for the VBSA I travelled to 8 venues to observe the coaches at work, this was a surprise situation and coaches did not know of my attendance until they arrived at the venue. From these observations I have been able to recognize areas where the coaches need to be working as one; these will be implemented in 2005.

This year we introduced a system where the coaches shared information from their evaluations. From these activities it would be hoped that evaluations would be completed in the same way, passing on the same information and therefore producing more consistent evaluations for members.
